

As our country continues to navigate through the challenges of COVID-19, Classic Property Management remains committed to providing support to our team members, clients, and communities across the Dallas/Fort-Worth area. Our top priority is the health and well-being of our team members, clients, and business associates. We will continue to monitor developments and making changes along the way according to recommended policies from governmental agencies and health officials and make the necessary and appropriate decisions for the safety of all.

As the situation continues to evolve rapidly, Classic Property Management has adjusted to create best practices and guidance to fit our community's needs. As always, we want to assure you that we are dedicated to serving all our communities.

To mitigate the spread of the virus, Classic Property Management has encouraged social distancing and implemented remote working capabilities. Our team members are the heart of our business, and we are doing everything possible to support them through this time while allowing them to continue working to deliver the highest level of service to our communities.

Our hearts go out to those who have been impacted by this COVID-19 global pandemic. We are grateful for all the healthcare workers, local communities, and governments around the country who are working to contain COVID-19. It's times like these that build stronger communities, and we would like to thank you for doing your part to stay safe and healthy.

Thank you for your continued loyalty, patience, and understanding. We are here with you and will continue to do all we can to serve you, our team members, and our community.
